Dear Abby,

I have seen that you have been a good girl this year, always listening to your parents and doing well in school. I have also heard that you have been wanting new Poly Pockets and Zu Zu pets. My elves have been working extremely hard to keep up with the demands of all the little girls and boys of the world. Please be sure to continue to listen to your parents. Remember to finish your carrots and string beans at dinner; they are for you and not your dog Scruffy. The same goes for your room as well. Do not just brush your dirt and toys under the bed or I will not be able to get all the items on your Christmas list. In order for children to receive the Christmas gifts they need to continue to listen and be good all year long. Please don't ever be afraid to write me again as I will always try to write back and show you that Santa is always near.

Sincerely Yours,

Santa Clause
